

A Few QAS Notes...

This Friday and Saturday are the First Friday and First Saturday of the month. On Friday evening we have an additional Mass for all parishioners at 7:30 PM followed by Adoration and a Holy Hour that concludes with Benediction.

On Saturday morning, Adoration, Holy Hour and Benediction follow the 8:30 AM Mass, These Masses and the Holy Hours that follow are wonderful opportunities to encounter the Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. In our noise and often hectic pace of our lives, these occasions provide an oasis of worship, silence and prayer that we all need.

Repair and Restoration Work in the Church

As you can see, we have begun work around the baptismal font area in the area around the pulpit. We only discovered the extent of water damage from the font when we tore up the carpets. A four-foot section of steam pipe also needed to be replaced in that area.

Within the next week or two we will provide, in the bulletin, an overhead diagram of the church floor once restorations have been completed.

Be Prepared - It's Not That Far Away!

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 1st. These weeks ahead are a good time to dedicate some thought and prayer toward preparation for Lent.

How is God calling me to conversion and to new life in Christ?

Over the next few weeks, we'll provide some Lenten spiritual reading suggestions as well as other opportunities for reflection and prayer.

God bless you,
Father Ceriello
