Prayer for a Happy Home

Lord Jesus, you live in a happy family.
Make this house the abode of your presence, a warm
and joyful home.
Send peace upon all its members, serenity upon our nerves, control upon our tongues, health upon our bodies.
May our children be loved and may they sense it, and may ingratitude and greed be banned.
Lord, flood the hearts of parents with patience and understanding and with unlimited generosity.
Lord God, extend a tent of love to protect and refresh,
to warm and to nurture the children of this house.
Give us our daily bread, and banish from our house
the need to show off, to shine and to be seen; free us from the vanities of the world and from ambitions
that make us uneasy and steal our peace.
May joy shine in our eyes, may confidence open all doors, may happiness radiate like the sun, and may peace be the queen of this home.
We ask this of you, you who were a happy son, close to Mary and Joseph, in your home in Nazareth.

My dear Parishioners,

Forty years ago, on Saturday January 14, 1978, I was ordained to the Priesthood. The time since that day seems to have flown by! I am, however, always filled with gratitude for God's blessings and for this vocation. I feel blessed today to be serving as your parish priest here in Queen of All Saints. Please continue to keep me in your prayers and always be assured of my daily prayers for you especially at every Mass I offer.

Most gratefully,
Father Ceriello
