

CHRISTIAN SELF DENIAL

In an essay entitled "Christian Self Denial", Thomas Merton writes:

"Self-denial is useless unless it opens the ears of our heart to obey the will of God commanding us to take our place in time, in history and in the work of building His Kingdom of Love and Truth. An asceticism that fails in this may actually strengthen our opposition to God by making us concentrate on our own autonomy and moral perfection instead of on the concrete obligation to love God and our fellow man.

St. Gregory Nazianzen speaks of the Christian as "an instrument played by the Holy Spirit." The aim of asceticism is to keep this instrument in tune. Mortification is not simply the progressive control of instinct by deadening the appetites of the heart. That is too crude a view. It is rather like the tightening of a violin string. We do not just go on twisting and twisting until the string breaks. That would not be sanctity, but insanity. No: what we must do is bring the strings of this delicate instrument, which is our whole being, to the exact pitch which the Holy Spirit desires of us, in order that He may produce in us the exquisite melody of divine love that we were created to sing before the face of our heavenly Father."

Lenten Mini-Retreat ~ Saturday, February 24

A morning of prayer and reflection led by Sister Ave Clark, O.P.
Begins with Mass at 8:30 AM followed by light refreshments and Sister's presentation.

Did you know that New York City is called the "Abortion Capital of the World"? From February 14 through March 25, you're invited to join other Christians for 40 Days for Life – 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You're also invited to stand and peacefully pray during a 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside Planned Parenthood on Margaret Sanger Way at 26 Bleecker Street in Manhattan and also to help spread the word about this important community outreach. Whether you can join the public vigil or not, please consider adding the intention of the campaign to your Lenten fast. If you'd like more information – and especially if you'd like to volunteer to help, please contact 40days.manhattan@gmail.com. Also follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/40DaysManhattan. In addition, Mary Dobson will be in the Great Hall after the Holy Mass at 10:30am on Sunday, February 18th, with flyers and to answer any questions you might have.
