

Gathering Together To Meet Christ

(Excerpts from "Lent and Easter Wisdom from Thomas Merton")

Liturgy is a work in which the Church collaborates with the divine Redeemer, renewing on her altars the sacred mysteries which are the life and salvation of mankind, uttering again the life-giving words that are capable of saving and transforming our souls, blessing again the sick and possessed, and preaching His Gospel to the poor.

In the liturgy, then, the Church would have us realize that we meet the same Christ who went about everywhere doing good, and who is still present in the midst of wherever two or three are gathered together in His name. And we meet him by sharing in His life and His redemption. We meet Christ in order to be Christ and, with Him, save the world.

(Thomas Merton, Seasons of Celebration)

Prayer

"Awaken all of us who gather in your name, Lord, to the power of your death and rising from the dead. Allow us to rise from the sleep of our daily cares to the glory of your transfiguration, the light of your Father shining in you for us. Allow us to see how gathering in your name is to experience paradise."

Dear QAS Young Adults,

While some of us may still be thinking about what to "give up" this Lent, let's not forget all three pillars: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. You may find this article inspiring and illuminating on how to understand and practice these pillars of Lent!

<https://nowthatimcatholic.wordpress.com/2017/02/18/prayer-fasting-and-almsgiving-pillars-of-lent/>

On Wednesday, Feb. 28 at 7:30, you're invited to join us at QAS for a Young Adult Mass and Holy Hour. Please mark your calendars for this time of lenten prayer, meditation and adoration.

Looking for more almsgiving? We'll be back at Carlton Nursing home in March, so look out for that as well!
