

A Poem for Reflection

Below are a few verses for meditation, entitled "Small"

written by a Trappist monk of Saint Joseph's Abbey.

A small voice calling to us – the still small voice of conscience to make the grace-filled choice.

A brief gesture –
Smile or kindness offered in time.
Or short prayer.

Or outside
the smallest flower,
the tiniest bug or bird or blade of grass is sudden hope and joy.

Doing a bit more this time,
going a bit further,
sitting still and listening a little longer, doing the opposite – offering a smile instead of despondency and ill-temper.

Little choices. Small deeds that matter.

All good things, choices made confident in his love,
with us always,
so ordinarily.

Then the kingdom happens:
God's way,
God's sway
over the sad earth
through us, for us, beyond us, within us.

A Reflection on Mary from a Homily of St. Bernard of Clairvaux

*"Whoever you are who perceive yourself during this mortal existence to be drifting in treacherous waters at the mercy of the winds and waves rather than walking on firm ground, turn your eyes not away from this guiding star, unless you wish to be submerged by the storm!...
Look at the star, call upon Mary... With her for a guide, you will never go astray... Under her protection you have nothing to fear; if she walks before you, you will not grow weary; if she shows you favor, you will reach the goal."*
