

A Meditation

Consider this meditation based on the writings of Saint Francis de Sales:

“If you hope to succeed in whatever you do, place your trust totally in God’s providence. Cooperate with him, then rest secure that whatever happens will be best for you. Think of a child walking with her father. One hand clings tightly to his, but with the other she gathers fruit from the trees along the way. Imitate the child. With one hand go ahead and gather what you need of the world’s good things, but with the other hold on to your heavenly Father, checking regularly whether or not he approves of what you are doing with your life. Above all, beware of letting go of your Father to free up both your hands to gather more of the world’s goods. You will find that by yourself you will stumble and fall. And when your gathering does not require all your attention, turn your mind to God as often as you can. Like a sailor returning to port, look to the sky and not just to the waves that carry you.”

*Have a blessed week,

PARISH OFFERING

*The offering to the parish last week was: 7455
Thank you for your generosity and support of Queen of All Saints!*

PARISH WEEKLY GOAL

Thank you for your sacrificial giving each week. Please remember that in order for us to meet our ordinary expenses, we need a minimum of $7500 in each Sunday's offering. Please continue to be as generous as you can. If you miss a week for any reason, please try to make up for it the following week or when you return. This is especially true on holiday weekends and during the summer months. Thank you again for your understanding.

LISTENING SESSIONS ON RACISM AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Since the tragic and horrific events of Charlottesville Virginia just one year ago, we have seen the effect and impact that racism has had on our society. The Bishops of the United States have formed a committee to focus and address the sin of racism.

Here in the diocese of Brooklyn, Bishop DiMarzio has formed a commission on Racism and Social Justice.

The goal of this commission is to deal with the social and religious problems that racism in all of its forms presents to us. The commission would like to hear from all of the faithful of the diocese of Brooklyn. To that end we will be hosting two open listening sessions, one in Brooklyn and one in Queens for all the faithful of the diocese to attend. These sessions are meant to be an opportunity for us to share how racism has impacted our parishes and the church as a whole. These sessions will be held on Saturday June 16 beginning at 11:00AM at St. Francis of Assisi-St. Blaise Parish Center and Saturday June 23 beginning at 11:00AM at St. Clare School Auditorium.

All are invited.
