

Sacred Signs

Each Sunday bulletin this summer will contain an excerpt from a classic book of liturgical reflections by Msgr. Romano Guardini, Sacred Signs.

This week: Walking

Walking – how many people know how to walk? It is not hurrying along at a kind of run, or shuffling along at a snail's pace, but a composed and firm forward movement. There is spring in the tread of a good walker. He lifts, not drags, his heels. He is straight, not stoop-shouldered, and his steps are sure and even.

There is something uncommonly fine in the right kind of walking. It is a combination of freedom and discipline., It is poised, as if the walker is carrying a weight, yet proceeds with unhampered energy. In a man's walk there is a suggestion of bearing arms or burdens; in a woman's an attractive grace that reflects an inner world of peace.

And when the occasion is religious, what a beautiful thing walking can be! It is a genuine act of divine worship. Merely to walk into a church in reverent awareness that we are entering the house of the Most High, and in a special manner into his presence, may be "to walk before the Lord."

...We are, as the Bible calls us, the generation of God. We have been born of God into newness of life. Profoundly, through the Sacrament of the Altar, Christ lives in us; his body has passed into the substance of our bodies; his blood flows in our veins. For "he that eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him." These are his words. Christ grows in us and we in him, until being thoroughly formed by him, we attain to that full stature of Jesus Christ, and everything we do or are, "whether we eat or sleep, or whatsoever we do", our work, our recreation, our pleasures and our pains, are all taken up into the Christ-life.

The consciousness of this mystery should pass in all its joyous strength and beauty into our very manner of walking. The command "to walk before the Lord and be perfect" is a profound figure of speech. We ought to both fulfill the command and illustrate the figure.

But is sober reality. The beauty of this order is not the product of mere wishing.

The Angelus

The Angelus bells ring at noon and 6pm each day. Pray the Angelus, especially at those hours as a meditation and song of praise and thanksgiving to God for the Incarnation, and a meditative song of joy to Mary through whom the Savior, the Word, became flesh.

V. The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived by the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to thy word. Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. Pour forth we beseech thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His passion and cross be brought to the glory of his resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.
