

Litany Of Humility

This prayer was composed and prayed every day after Mass by Cardinal Rafael Merry del Val, the secretary of state to Pope Pius X.

Some of these intercessions may be difficult for us to pray for, but each in its own way, does dispose us to receive the Holy Spirit and to find our true strength and peace in God's faithful and providential love for us.

O Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like yours.

From self-will, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being esteemed, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being loved, ...

From the desire of being extolled, ...

From the desire of being honored, ...

From the desire of being praised, ...

From the desire of being preferred to others, ...

From the desire of being consulted, ...

From the desire of being approved, ...

From the desire to be understood, ...

From the desire to be visited, ...

From the fear of being humiliated, ...

From the fear of being despised, ...

From the fear of suffering rebukes, ...

From the fear of being calumniated, ...

From the fear of being forgotten, ...

From the fear of being ridiculed, ...

From the fear of being wronged, ...

From the fear of being suspected, ...

From the fear of being wronged, ...

From the fear of being refused, ...

From the fear of being abandoned, ...

That others may be loved more than I, Lord, grant me the grace to desire it.

That in the opinion of the world others may increase and I may decrease, ...

That others may be chosen and I set aside, ...

That others may be praised and I go unnoticed, ...

That others may be preferred to me in everything, ...

That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should, ...

At being poor and unknown, Lord, I want to rejoice.

At being deprived of the natural perfections of body and mind, ...

When I am given the most difficult of tasks, ...

When others never think to make use of me, ...

When others never ask my opinion, ...

When they leave me at the lowest place, ...

When they never compliment me, ...

When others wrongly blame me, ...

Blessed are those who suffer persecution for justice sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Amen.
