

A Meditation

Consider this meditation based on the writings of Saint Francis de Sales:

“If you hope to succeed in whatever you do, place your trust totally in God’s providence. Cooperate with him, then rest secure that whatever happens will be best for you. Think of a child walking with her father. One hand clings tightly to his, but with the other she gathers fruit from the trees along the way. Imitate the child. With one hand go ahead and gather what you need of the world’s good things, but with the other hold on to your heavenly Father, checking regularly whether or not he approves of what you are doing with your life. Above all, beware of letting go of your Father to free up both your hands to gather more of the world’s goods. You will find that by yourself you will stumble and fall. And when your gathering does not require all your attention, turn your mind to God as often as you can. Like a sailor returning to port, look to the sky and not just to the waves that carry you.”

*Have a blessed week,

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me,
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within thy wounds, hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malicious enemy, defend me.
In the hour of death call me,
And bid me to come to thee,
That with thy saints I may praise thee forever.
Amen.

A Reflection on Mary from a Homily of St. Bernard of Clairvaux

“Whoever you are who perceive yourself during this mortal existence to be drifting in treacherous waters at the mercy of the winds and waves rather than walking on firm ground, turn your eyes not away from this guiding star, unless you wish to be submerged by the storm!... Look at the star, call upon Mary... With her for a guide, you will never go astray... Under her protection you have nothing to fear; if she walks before you, you will not grow weary; if she shows you favor, you will reach the goal.”

PARISH OFFERING

The offering to the parish last week was not available at the time of printing. Thank you for your generosity and support of Queen of All Saints!

PARISH WEEKLY GOAL

Thank you for your sacrificial giving each week. Please remember that in order for us to meet our ordinary expenses, we need a minimum of $7500 in each Sunday's offering. Please continue to be as generous as you can. If you miss a week for any reason, please try to make up for it the following week or when you return. This is especially true on holiday weekends and during the summer months. Thank you again for your understanding.
