

“Do Not Be Afraid...Nothing Will Be Impossible For God”

These are the words, among others, of the angel Gabriel to Mary in the Annunciation. We heard the account of the Annunciation from the Gospel of St. Luke this past week on September 12, the memorial of the Most Holy Name of Mary following upon the feast of the Birth of Mary on September 8th.

For the rest of her earthly life, Mary must have recalled this encounter with the angel and the words that they both exchanged. She may well have spoken the same words of hope and encouragement to Joseph, to her family and neighbors, and perhaps even to a young Jesus. They would surely have been words of solace and reassurance to Mary during the Passion of her Son.

Today, Mary, our Mother, offers us the same words of hope and courage as the Church faces a time of necessary conversion and purification. As painful as this time may be for each and all of us in different ways and for different reasons, we should find strength in the words of the angel Gabriel that, through Mary, are now spoken to us. “Do not be afraid!”. “Nothing will be impossible for God!”. Those words should continually resonate in our minds and hearts as they surely did in Mary’s.

Let us pray for Mary’s intercession, guidance and protection that as we move through this time that necessarily calls for truthfulness, purification and transformation, we may experience true and deep conversion in Christ, and emerge stronger and more Christ-like as a Church, clergy and laity alike.

God bless you,
Father Ceriello

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought
thy intercession, was left unaided.
Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word incarnate, despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen
