

The Love of Christ

“If anyone should ask: what is certain in life or death - so certain that everything else may be anchored to it?

The answer is: the love of Christ.

Life teaches us that this is the only true reply.

Not people - not even the best or the dearest; not science or philosophy, or art or any other product of human genius. Also not nature, which is so full of profound deception; neither time nor fate.

Only Christ's love is certain. We cannot even say God's love; for that God loves us we also know know, ultimately, only through Christ.

Only through Christ do we know that God's love is forgiving.

Certain only is that which manifested itself on the cross.

What has been said so often and so inadequately is true:

The heart of Jesus Christ is the beginning and end of all things.”

-from “The Lord” by Msgr. Romano Guardini
