

SUMMERTIME

The summer season offers us all a change of pace in one form or another. Perhaps it has to do with vacation from school or work, travelling or just coping with warm weather. We should see this season as an opportunity for spiritual growth as well as leisure, and perhaps a blending of both. Some good spiritual reading, a few minutes more each day for prayer, or even setting aside a few hours, or a day, for quiet, prayer and reflection can make our leisure time more productive.

At the very least, we should continue to attend Sunday Mass. If you are travelling, you can visit the website: Masstimes.org to find a church and Mass schedule near wherever you are. Very often it happens that the most surprisingly pleasant and spiritually refreshing experiences occur when we attend Mass in a church along our travel itinerary.

Whether it involves travelling, or the equally beneficial staycation, we should be spiritually attentive to the gift of this season and the spiritual opportunities it presents to us. Time spent with the Lord in prayer and worship, time with family and friends, time making new friends and time alone are gifts to be valued and made the most of. Whatever you do I hope you have a beautiful summer!

God's blessings,

YOUR SUNDAY OFFERING IN SUMMERTIME

As is true for all of us, our parish expenses do not decrease during the summer months, though Mass attendance often does with so many away from home on weekends. Please remember to keep up with your weekly offerings even if you are not at Queen of All Saints for Sunday Mass.

Your faithful and generous sacrificial giving each week is always inspiring. Thank you!

MISSION SUPPORT NEXT WEEKEND at QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS

Every summer each parish in the diocese participates in the support of mission work in various parts of the world and in some parts of our own country. This year we will be visited by a representative of the Diocese of Sultanpet (established in 2013) in the region of Kerala in southern India. We will host Father Deva who will speak at all Masses next weekend, July 20-21. The second collection at each Mass will be for the support of the pastoral work taking place in this new diocese. There are churches to be built, vocations to be encouraged and supported, and the work of responding to the needs of the poor and those affected by natural disasters and epidemics. Please join me in welcoming Father Deva next weekend!

God's blessings,
Father Ceriello

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection,
implored thy help,
or sought thine intercession
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence,
I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins,
my mother; to thee do I come,
before thee I stand,
sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy
hear and answer me.

Amen.
