

40 DAYS

We were Made for God and Everything Else Was Made to Help Us toward God

God speaks to me: my child, where are your energies directed? What do you have when your efforts succeed in bringing you prestige? You have just what yours labors have sought. How long will these things last? How satisfying will they ultimately be? How sad it is when people seek anything less than me, that is what they will get. You must realize that your hearts were made for me and they cannot rest until they rest in me. If, in your lifetime, you strive to achieve anything less than me, you will get just that. That is what hell is.

All good comes from me and all real happiness. Anything else is deceptive. You can realize this and acknowledge it simply by being grateful and by placing all of your hope in me. Never will you regret it.

When my love informs you and all your activities, you will experience real wisdom, true joy, and you will know the power of love.

BRINGING THE IMITATION OF CHRIST INTO THE 21ST CENTURY.
