

All Saints Day

Today, November 1st, we celebrate the lives of all the saints...those who have gone before us who lived the Christian life with heroic commitment and virtue in the midst of all of life's struggles and difficulties. The saints reflect the "richness of God's goodness...through whom God's own light becomes visible" (Pope Benedict XVI). Today, in a special way, we pray to all the saints, and especially our patron and favorite saints. We can always count on the power of their intercession and guidance on our behalf. Remember, too, that at the center of the saints is Our Lady, Queen of All Saints.

All Souls Day

On Monday November 2nd, we remember in loving prayer all those who have died who still await the beatific vision. Our prayers for the dead, especially at Mass, are acts of love and confidence that they will share fully in the Resurrection of Christ in eternal life.

First Friday

This Friday, November 6th is the First Friday of the month. Immediately following the 8:30am Mass we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Adoration concluding with Benediction at about 9:50am.

Parish Stewardship Program

Thank you so much to those who have already returned their commitment cards to the rectory. We are hoping for the participation of each parishioner even if you plan to stay with your current weekly offering amount. Your participation helps us to budget for the future and keep our parish on an even keel financially.

God's blessings,
Father Joseph Ceriello

PARISH OFFERING

The offering to the parish last Sunday was: $5933.

Thank you for your generosity and your support of Queen of All Saints!

PARISH WEEKLY GOAL

Thank you for your sacrificial giving each week. Please remember that in order for us to meet our ordinary expenses, we need a minimum of $7500 in each Sunday's offering. Please continue to be as generous as you can. If you miss a week for any reason, please try to make up for it the following week or when you return. This is especially true on holiday weekends and during the summer months. Thank you again for your

From Saint (Mother) Teresa of Calcutta (1994)

“The so-called right to abortion has pitted mothers against their children and women against men. It has sown violence and discord at the heart of the most intimate human relationships. It has aggravated the derogation of the father’s role in an increasingly fatherless society. It has portrayed the greatest of gifts – a child – as a competitor, an intrusion, and an inconvenience. It has nominally accorded mothers unfettered dominion over the independent lives of their physically dependent sons and daughters. And in granting this unconscionable power, it has exposed many women to unjust and selfish demands from their husbands or other sexual partners. Human rights are not a privilege conferred by government. They are every human being’s entitlement by virtue of his or her humanity. The right to life does not depend, and must not be declared to be contingent, on the pleasure of anyone else, not even a parent or a sovereign.”
