

Dear Friends,

It continues to be a great source of joy to see parishioners gradually coming back to Sunday Mass. Over the past couple of Sundays, we have had parent meetings for children preparing for First Holy Communion and practice for First Penance and First Holy Communion which was to have been received this past May. Please keep these children and their families in your prayers as they encounter Our Lord in these two Sacraments in the coming weeks.

As I mentioned in this column a couple of weeks ago, I am deeply grateful and humbled by the generosity of so many parishioners who have been able to keep up with weekly offerings over the past six months. I know that this has been a difficult time financially for many. Your sacrifices for the parish have been a great help. As you might imagine, we are looking at a very significant deficit in the past fiscal year which ended on August 31st, so your continued financial support has been even more important.

As we go forward, we need to consider what Queen of All Saints parish needs to do to remain financially solvent and secure for the immediate and distant future. This will require a renewed commitment by each parishioner...a commitment to do a little more each week of the year so that we can have that security that is so important to us. I'll be communicating with you more on that over the next weeks.

In spite of the pandemic, we continue to be a growing parish. We have celebrated Baptisms almost every weekend since the reopening of the church in early July, and I am sure that if we can all get through the next few months safely and in good health, we will see even more signs of hope and life in our parish.

Let's continue to pray for one another and, in our prayers, to pray for Mary's intercession in our behalf. As our Mother and our Patroness, she can always be counted on.

God's peace,
Father Joseph Ceriello

PARISH OFFERING

The offering to the parish last Sunday was: $3210

Thank you for your generosity and your support of Queen of All Saints!

PARISH WEEKLY GOAL

Thank you for your sacrificial giving each week. Please remember that in order for us to meet our ordinary expenses, we need a minimum of $7500 in each Sunday's offering. Please continue to be as generous as you can. If you miss a week for any reason, please try to make up for it the following week or when you return. This is especially true on holiday weekends and during the summer months. Thank you again for your understanding.
