

The Grace of the Present Moment

"As often noted, when souls have given themselves to God in all sincerity and have made generous, even heroic efforts to prove their love for Him, a critical moment comes when they must abandon a too personal way of judging and acting – though it may be of a high order – so as to enter upon the path of true humility, that "little humility" which loses sight of self and looks henceforward on God alone.

At that moment two widely different courses are possible: either the soul seeks for itself the course to take and pursues it, or it fails to do so, sometimes going so far astray in its upward path as to go back again without being altogether aware of it.

To see this path of true humility is to discover in our everyday life, from morning to night, opportunities of performing seemingly trivial acts for the love of God. But the frequent repetition of these acts is of immense value and leads to a delicacy of attitude toward God and our neighbor which, if constant and truly sincere is the mark of perfect charity.

The acts then demanded of the soul are very simple and pass by unnoticed. There is nothing in them for self-love to take hold of. God alone sees them, and the soul thinks it is offering Him, so to speak, nothing at all. Without this fidelity in little things actuated by the spirit of faith and love, humility, patience and gentleness, the contemplative life will never penetrate the active, the ordinary everyday life. Contemplation will be confined, as it were, to the summit of the intellect, where it is more speculative than contemplative; it will fail to permeate our whole existence and manner of life and will remain almost completely barren whereas it should become every day more fruitful."

PARISH OFFERING

*The offering to the parish last Sunday was: 2931
Thank you for your generosity and your support of Queen of All Saints!*

PARISH WEEKLY GOAL

*Thank you for your sacrificial giving each week.
Please remember that in order for us to meet our ordinary expenses, we need a minimum of $7500 in each Sunday's offering. Please continue to be as generous as you can. If you miss a week for any reason, please try to make up for it the following week or when you return. This is especially true on holiday weekends and during the summer months.
Thank you again for your understanding.*

As you know, we have embarked on a stewardship program for the parish that hopefully will enable us to meet our current and future financial obligations. Maintaining and continuing to develop parish ministries and programs, and the care of our beautiful church and adjoining spaces is a responsibility that we all have a share and interest in.

You should have received a letter and reply card in the mail or through the bulletin and parish website. It is very important to the success of this program that you return that card. Perhaps you are able to increase your weekly offering, or perhaps not. You can indicate that on the card. You can also indicate how you prefer to make your weekly offering: using envelopes, through your bank, or through online giving. It is very helpful for future planning to have that information.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation!
