

Happy Easter to All

Easter greetings and blessings to you and all those dear to you!

The eight Day period after Easter is known as the Octave of Easter with each day celebrated liturgically as Easter day itself. These days, at the beginning of the Easter Season, are opportunities to continue the celebration of the Resurrection of the Lord and to savor the great truths that are at the center of our Faith. On the eighth day itself (this year April 11), the Second Sunday of Easter, we will also celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday.

Thank You!

On behalf of all our parishioners, and especially those who were able to participate in the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday, I want to thank all those who helped in any way to make our celebrations so beautiful.

I'd like to begin with those in Music Ministry. Joel Warden, our music director, and our exceedingly talented cantors, Siobahn Sung and Jennifer Gliere, have guided us through the past nine months with beautiful accompaniments and chants and with occasional guest instrumentalists. Alex Borja continues to be a stalwart mainstay, playing the organ at the 8:30 Mass each Sunday and looking about five years younger since he turned over the music director responsibilities to Joel. The Bell Choir, with the leadership of Lisa Allongo, has thankfully already resumed a regular place in our liturgical schedule! Thank you all!

Our Decorating Team and the gifted florists at Midtown Florists have once again brought freshness and beauty to our church through flowers...all for the glory of God.

Our Ushers continue to be the most courteous and welcoming anywhere. Theirs is truly a "ministry of hospitality".

Since we resumed Sunday Mass nine months ago, we have only had six lectors in the Sunday rotation. That means each lector is reading every other week. I am so grateful for their generous and selfless service to the Lord through this ministry.

Thank you to all of you who enrich parish life, such as it can be these days, through your prayers and participation in Sunday Mass. We all hope and pray that the coming weeks will bring even more participation and presence.

Easter blessings,
Father Ceriello
