Summer 2022

Hopefully, this summer will offer us all a healthy change of pace in one form or another. Perhaps there is the opportunity to travel or to renew relationships with loved ones whom we have not seen for a while. The value of leisure time should not be overlooked or underestimated. Enjoying good weather, gatherings with family and friends and even just taking some time for oneself can be very refreshing and renewing.

Woven into it all is our relationship with the Lord. There is a spiritual renewal and refreshing that should be at work within us as well. For a person of faith, any good use of leisure should include a deepening awareness of God's presence and love in our lives.

Of course, that begins with the Eucharist, the "source and summit" of our lives as Catholics. Don't let Sunday Mass slip by! Even if you are travelling you can find Sunday Mass to attend. Try using the website: masstimes.org if you are travelling this summer. You might also decide to attend a weekday Mass here at Queen of All Saints.

Good spiritual reading, a few minutes more for prayer and contemplation, a good film or novel can all be experiences that enhance our summer leisure and perhaps become permanent parts of our lives throughout the year. Each day can be lived a little more deliberately, intentionally and carefully with Christ at the center. I can't think of anything more refreshing.

Another Summer (and even year-round) Topic

While I am on the topic of summer, I would like to ask you to please keep up with, and if possible, increase your weekly offerings, even if you are away during the summer months. We have not nearly rebounded to our pre-pandemic weekly numbers (in attendance or in weekly offerings). Your sacrificial giving each week is critical. Please be as generous as you can. As always, be sure of my deep gratitude for your support.

God's blessings,
Father Ceriello
