What the Magi Learned

Going into the house, the Magi saw the child...Outwardly, their journey was now over. But at this point a new journey began for them which changed their whole lives...Deep within themselves they felt prompted to go in search of the true justice that can only come from God, and they wanted to serve this King, to fall prostrate at his feet and so play their part in the renewal of the world. They were among those “who hunger and thirst for justice” (Mt 5:6). This hunger and thirst had spurred them on in their pilgrimage- they had become pilgrims in search of the justice that they expected from God...The new King to whom they now paid homage, was quite unlike what they were expecting. In this way they had to learn that God is not as we usually imagine him to be. This was where their inner journey began. It started at the very moment when they knelt down before this child and recognized him as the promised King. But they still had to assimilate these joyful gestures internally. They had to change their ideas about power, about God and about man, and in so doing, they also had to change themselves... They had to learn to give themselves- no lesser gift would be sufficient for this King. They had to learn that their lives must be conformed to this divine way of exercising power, to God’s own way of being. They must become men of truth, of justice, of goodness, of forgiveness, of mercy... They will have to ask: How can I serve God’s presence in the world? They must learn to lose their life and in this way to find it. Having left Jerusalem behind, they must not deviate from the path marked out by the true King, as they follow Jesus.

- Pope Benedict XVI

PARISH OFFERING

Our Offering Christmas was: $8668.00 and the offering New Year: $3790.00.

Thank you for your sacrificial giving in support of your parish.

In order to meet all our ordinary expenses, we need $7000 - $8000 in the offering each week.

God Bless You!

Prayers for the Deceased and the Sick

The beginning of a new year seems like a good time to update our prayer lists that appear in the bulletin each week. In order to keep the lists updated, names will appear in print for about one month or so from the date of entry. Please contact the rectory at the end of the "prayer request period" if you would like to extend the prayer request for another month.

In addition to prayer requests in the bulletin, I would like to recommend to you the custom of offering "announced" Masses for the deceased (also for the sick) on specific days and times. By offering a Mass or Masses for loved ones who have died (or who are ill) we are powerfully expressing our belief in the Communion of Saints and our union with one another in Christ especially in the Eucharist.

Announced Mass intentions, which also appear in the bulletin each week, can be for the 8:30am Mass Sunday through Friday and the 5:00pm Mass on Saturday.

Please contact the rectory office to schedule Masses for loved ones.

God's blessings throughout the new year,
Father Ceriello
