New Parishioners

We welcome you to the Roman Catholic community of Queen of All Saints!
Please stop by the Rectory and register so that we may better know and serve you.

Happy Easter!

Easter greetings and blessings to you and all those dear to you!

I hope and pray the power of the Resurrection of the Lord will bring you the light of new life in Christ, along with strength and hope in every part of your life.

The Octave of Easter

The eight days after Easter, beginning Easter Sunday and through the second Sunday of Easter is known as the Octave of Easter. Each of these days is celebrated liturgically as Easter Day itself. The Octave days are opportunities to continue the celebration of the Resurrection and to savor the great truths that are at the center of our faith.

Thank You!

Thank you for your faithful participation in the liturgies of Holy Week and of Easter. On behalf of all parishioners and visitors, I want to especially thank those in Music Ministry, our Decorating Team, our Ushers, Lectors and Altar Servers. Every liturgy is more beautiful because of your talents.

Sunday Eucharist

Every Sunday of the year is a celebration of the Resurrection of the Lord! This makes coming together for Sunday Mass each week a central part of our faith. There is a sense in which we have a commitment, not only to the Lord (that is obvious), but to one another to be present at the Eucharist each Sunday. The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist is always the same, radiating and offering us the Divine Love. But by our presence in church, because of our commitment to the Lord and one another, we edify and strengthen each another as members of the Body of Christ.

Easter blessings,

Father Ceriello
