ALL SAINTS DAY – November 1st

This Wednesday, November 1st is All Saints Day, a Holy Day of Obligation.

On this day we celebrate the lives of all the saints...those who have gone before us who lived the Christian life with heroic commitment and virtue in the midst of all of life's struggles and difficulties. The saints reflect the "richness of God's goodness...through whom God's own light becomes visible" (Pope Benedict XVI). On All Saints Day we pray, in a special way to all the saints and in particular to our patron saints and those to whom we have great devotion. We can always count on the power of their intercession and guidance.

Mass for All Saints Day will be offered at 8:30 am.

ALL SOULS DAY – November 2nd

On Thursday, November 2, All Souls Day, we remember in loving prayer all those who have died and who are dear to us. Our prayers for the deceased, especially at Mass, are acts of faith, hope and love that they will share fully in the Resurrection of Christ in eternal life.

Mass on All Souls Day will be offered at 8:30 am.

God's blessings and peace,
Father Ceriello
jaceriello@gmail.com

A Scheduling Note:

The NYC Marathon will take place next Sunday, November 5. Our Mass schedule for Saturday and Sunday remains the same. You may want to give yourself a bit of extra time to get to church on Sunday, especially for the 10:30 Mass. Don't forget that if you live south of Lafayette Avenue, you can still get to the north (church) side via the subway passage on Clinton Avenue!
