MERRY CHRISTMAS

Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift. Jesus is here!

Merry Christmas!

Dear parishioners and friends,

Be assured of my prayers for you and those dear to you this Christmas and each day throughout the new year. As I remember you each day in the Eucharist, I encourage you to make the Sunday Eucharist the center of your week: “The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life”! (Lumen Gentium). At the heart of the Christmas celebration is God’s great love for us, and this great love is celebrated in each Mass. Your presence on Sunday is not only important for you, but for all of us together. These present times (which will pass) can be discouraging, but in these days of Christmas grace we are fortified and given hope by God’s extraordinary and faithful love.

Contained in today’s bulletin is the Mass schedule for Christmas through the Epiphany.

With Christmas on a Monday everything seems somewhat compressed, but each Eucharist for each feast is important to what we are celebrating. I look forward to seeing you throughout the season.

Christmas joy and peace,

Father Ceriello
