The Deep Desire of the Magi

Why did the Magi set off from afar to go to Bethlehem? The answer has to do with the mystery of the “star” which they saw “in the East” and which they recognized as the star of the “king of the Jews,” the sign of the birth of the messiah (Mt 2:2). So, their journey was inspired by a powerful hope, strengthened, and guided by the star, which led them toward the king of the Jews, toward the kingship of God himself. The Magi set out because of a deep desire which prompted them to leave everything and begin a journey. It was as though they had always been waiting for that star. It was as if the journey had always been a part of their destiny and was finally about to begin. This is the mystery of God’s call, the mystery of vocation. It is part of the life of every Christian... When the Magi came to Bethlehem, “going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him” (Mt 2: 11). Here at last was the long-awaited moment - their encounter with Jesus. “Going into the house”: this house in some sense represents the Church. In order to find the Savior, one has to enter the house, which is the Church... “They fell down and worshiped him... and offered him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh” (Mt 2:11 - 12). Here is the culmination of the whole journey: encounter becomes adoration; it blossoms into an act of faith and love which acknowledges in Jesus, born of Mary, the son of God made man... The secret of holiness is friendship with Christ and faithful obedience to his will.

- Pope Benedict XVI
